Subject: Don't forget to register for the 2015 Childhood Obesity and Public Health Conference!

The Conference

The eighth annual childhood obesity and public health conference will be held at LSU's Pennington Biomedical Research Center on Wednesday, October 28, 2015. Given the emphasis on developing evidence-based public health strategies targeting childhood obesity, the topic of this conference is on local Louisiana researchers and how their work is having an impact at the national level.

Learning Objectives

Participants at this conference will be able to:

- learn the extent of the problem of childhood obesity in Louisiana
- understand current local and national landscapes with respect to pediatric obesity prevention and treatment health care reimbursement
- describe the “Challenge for a Healthier Louisiana” program and its state-wide impact
- hear from experts on the potential national impact of local pediatric obesity research

Who Should Attend?

This conference is designed for professionals engaged in public health efforts, including: physicians, nutritionists, physical activity specialists, registered dietitians, nurses, health educators, psychologists, and counselors; healthcare policy makers, researchers, media, business and civic leaders, parks and recreation personnel, and early childhood and school-age educators and decision-makers.
